

A stylized map illustration on a light blue background. It features a white rectangular area with a brown border. Inside the map, there are three grey mountain peaks at the top left, a compass rose at the top right, a brown backpack with orange straps at the bottom right, and several green pine trees scattered throughout. A dashed line path starts from a small 'x' at the bottom left and winds through the trees towards the top right. The text 'CAMP KERN MEETING' is written in a large, bold, black, slightly irregular font across the center of the map.
